

Salvia forsskaolii Indigo Woodland Sage

Hardiness: Hardy

Height: 60-90cm

Spread: 45-60cm

Exposure: Full sun, part sun

Flowering: Mid-summer to early fall

Resistances: Deer, drought

Pollinators: Various

General Description:

Mauve-blue flowers with contrasting white eyes bloom profusely throughout summer and early fall. The semi-evergreen perennial is deer and drought tolerant in full sun and light shade. Also makes an excellent choice water edges, woodland gardens. Has fragrant foliage.

Care Notes:

Will self-sow and is easily propagated from seeds. Adaptable to different soils and light conditions.